

Australian Freight and Transport, Now Provides Instant Quotes

By Australian Freight

Dated: Apr 08, 2010

Australian Freight has signed a deal to provide customers with instant online quotes via the Australian Freight website. The special software covers freight pickup and delivery to every city in Australia.

Australian Freight is proud to announce the next step in ecommerce freight.

Our partnership with Australia's leading software programmers has allowed our team to automate our rates database displaying rates instantly to our online customers

Australian Freight's website is available at <http://australianfreight.com.au>

Australia Wide Courier selection and comparison tool , view and book online couriers. Australia Wide Select from a range of registered couriers all at discounted online rates.

Online stores can save the hassle of postage and handling, with new couriers loaded all the time. Our team offers innovative logistics strategies for corporate activities world-wide: Courier, Shipping Express, Economy Discounted freight rates. If you are looking for a new courier, or would like to run a price check on your current supplier, we welcome you to trial our database of transport companies. Courier companies provide us with online rates for the Australian market. We help to automate the process offering you with online con note printing and online booking services.

One off shippers and senders can now access discounted rates without requiring a large volume account. As we have large volume buying power we have automated the process allowing you to ship at a low cost. Courier companies like this as we help to handle improve their payment concerns. We gather multiple low volume shippers and consolidate them through our website. Allowing our customers a larger range of shipping options around Australia. From online shops to university students who are hunting for a student discount when sending their freight. Our online services include the preparation of a shipping label. Cheap Courier and Freight Rates Australia Wide discounts. Obtain an online quote from our leading trucking , airfreight and courier companies. We have already organised great discounts.

Search our database for an improvement on your current service provider or view other customers feedback on carriers. Its a great way to analyse your logistics options or if you only send things here and there then we offer great specials. We are an Aussie company and want to help small to medium business grow. Please try our free calculator to estimate your next courier cost Freight Quoting is completely free. Compare transport carriers online.

Select , Compare , Match Couriers. Sending a shipment from Adelaide to Melbourne or from Brisbane to Perth, We have a list of great interstate courier companies that are hungry for your business. Try our online interstate couriers calculator to view competitive Australia wide courier rates. Our tool is designed to help Australian business , both online and retail customers to one off shippers compare and match Australian Freight and courier companies depending on your needs. Our website helps you to analyse your specific route depending on your pickup and your delivery location. We allow you to select from Door to Door to Depot to Depot delivery. Our carriers have listed transit times and cover national locations. Thank you for trying our service have a great day. We have pulled together hundreds of courier companies, and consolidated them to provide our Australian customers with access to great courier rates. We have built an online booking platform for you to view a list of courier prices, select your desired company and book all online. We use our bulk buying ability to negotiate very nice rates to be able to offer one off shippers through to business the ability to manage your postage handing and courier deliveries all online

Thank-you for visiting our website. Compare Courier Companies Australia, Our software helps you to match your best courier company depending on your location, your shipment details and your requirements. We help one off students shippers, online retail stores, shops and small to medium business help to compare and match the courier that meets their needs. Fantastic online rates are available for all to see. National courier and logistics services helping Australians move goods and products locally and interstate. We are using our 14 years of Australian Freight Experience to roll out an automated freight quote and booking system. We are starting with domestic, metro and national freight delivery and we will be expanding to import and export as we grow. Exceptional door to door freight rates available for small to medium business across Australia. Offering exceptional online pricing, Our database of couriers contains some of Australias leading door to door courier companies. We have on offer the ability to view discounted rates, select the carrier of your choice , and even print con notes and labels for you to book all online through our system. We thank you for giving us the opportunity to quote for your next delivery or pickup.

www.Australianfreight.com.au

###

<http://Australianfreight.com.au>

Australian Freight , transport, and courier service provides discounted rates on top carriers through our instant booking system. Australian Freight is 100% Australian owned and operated.

Category	Shipping, Australian Freight, Australian
Tags	australian, freight, australian freight
Email	Click to email author
Country	Australia